AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE

I, Guy Badcock of Paradise in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador, process server, make oath and say as follows:

1. That I was contracted by The Commission of Inquiry Respecting the Death of Donald Dunphy to serve Summons to Witnesses in this matter.
2. That on Friday, January 6, 2017 at approximately 11:00 a.m. I attended at the residence of Richard and Debbie Dunphy to serve a summons on each of them. I met Richard outside in his garage and I asked for Debbie Dunphy and he stated that she was not home, I asked if he was Richard and he identified himself and I served him accordingly. I left to serve other summons.
3. Upon speaking with Dianne Blackmore of the Commission I was asked to go back and inquire further about Mrs. Dunphy's whereabouts. I met Mr. Dunphy in his Garage again approximately 20 minutes later and asked where Debbie was. He stated that she was in town with a friend that she did not have a cell phone and he could not get in touch with her and that she would be gone all day. I asked for her home telephone number and he gave it to me being [REDACTED] and suggested that I should call around 6:00 p.m. I confirmed the number in the phone directory. I called it at 6:00 p.m. and it was not answered and I called it again from my cell phone, my home number and my wife's cell phone over the next couple of days but did not get an answer either time I called.
4. That on Monday January 9th at approximately 11:15 a.m. I attended at the residence again and knocked on both doors upstairs with out luck. I noticed a tv on in the basement and knocked at the basement door and a lady answered and advised she was a home care worker and that Debbie and Richard were not home, that she had relieved the night shift worker at 9:00 a.m. and when she came in the Dunphy's were gone. I left and came back home.
5. That on Monday, January 9th at approximately 6:15 p.m. I attended at the residence again and the same home care worker answered the door and advised that neither Richard nor Debbie were home and hadn't been home all day. She didn't know where they were or when they would be coming home. I handed the envelope to her as instructed by the Commission and she refused to take it, I advised that it was from the Commission, was very important and it was imperative that she get it to Mrs. Dunphy. I asked her name for my affidavit and she refused. I touched her with the envelope and dropped it at her feet inside the home. I then left.
6. I believe that Mrs. Dunphy is avoiding service by not answering the phone and by leaving the home to avoid being served.
