Hi Erin,

You are correct.

We are tasked with the FIA investigation, as you mentioned. That has been completed in essence, as we know how he died. On that note, I want to point out that the death certificate states "homicide" for manner of death. Our experience with families has been that when they see that word they get very upset, equating it with murder, which is not always the case as you know. I wonder if you might explain the difference between homicide and murder to her in case she sees it before the investigation is over?

We are also tasked with determining whether a criminal act occurred in the death. That investigation is what is continuing now. As an update, we have nearly all the investigative material compiled and are forwarding exhibits to the lab immediately. The independent observer will have all our material (thus far) delivered to him today.

Hi Kent:

Can you clarify for me what kind of investigation is ongoing right now in relation to Mr. Dunphy? Is it simply an investigation pursuant to the Fatalities Investigation Act or is it also a criminal investigation? I assumed it was both - but I don't want to assume anything right now.

Thanks.

Erin
