Remarks:

Folder 079 - Statement of Colin Dinn #2

Report:

2015-04-17

1354 hrs. At the request of Cpl BURKE, I attended the residence of Colin DINN in Mitchells Brook to inquire about his recollection of Don DUNPHY's glasses. Mr. DINN provided the following information:

- The last time he saw Mr DUNPHY prior to his death was on the Monday or Tuesday preceding his death. He attended DUNPHY's residence on that day and noted that he put on and took off his glasses on two occasions. He noted that DUNPHY didn't always wear his glasses. He only wore them to read, tweet, etc.
- He described the glasses as an old pair of "old man" silver glasses. One of the ear bands (He believes it was the left one but cannot be certain) was broken. At various times, DUNPHY used, black electrical tape, scotch tape and medical tape to repair the glasses.
- DUNPHY talked about getting new ones but could not afford to buy new glasses.
- He believes he (DINN) actually gave him the white medical tape DUNPHY used to fix the glasses. He gave this to him some time ago when DUNPHY scratched his hand while tending to one of his cats.
- When he put his glasses down, he'd either place them open or closed upside down. He'd usually place them on the blue tupperware container or the ice-cream container in front of his chair.
- He does not recall any damage to the nose piece or the lenses falling out.
- He only recalls ever seeing tape on the ear pieces of the glasses.

At the conclusion of the statement, DINN was asked whether it was possible that because SMYTH was RNC that Mr DUNPHY may have thought that he was not carrying a firearm (Since the RNC have not always carried firearms). DINN stated that this was possible given that the RNC don't have jurisdiction in the area. DINN also expressed the concern that it was very unlike DUNPHY to act out this way. He noted that in the 1980's when DUNPHY was in a body cast, [REDACTED]
